Hey everyone! I just wanna say thank you to everyone, I would have never expected this simple book to receive attention. I do want to say that I no longer like countryhumans, however I will still keep uploading for fun lol. If you have any requests that hopefully aren't too weird, I will do them for you :). Due to me not liking countryhumans, this book will definitely have slower updates that it usually had so I apologise in advance. Once again, thank you guys so much, I wish you a good day/night.
